

Newsletter on Fighting 2019-nCoV

4th Feb, 2020

- Embassy of China in Nigeria in Full Operation, Visa Service NOT Suspended
On the issuance of visa, the ambassador said that the embassy was in full operation and very effective. Link
- Well Contained: 414 out of 425 Deaths Happened in the Epicenter
As of 12 o'clock midnight on Feb 3, the National Health Commission had received confirmed cases of novel coronavirus rose to 20,438 in Chinese mainland, including 425 deaths, and in all 632 patients had been cured and discharged from hospital. Hubei reported 13,522 confirmed cases of the novel coronavirus as of Feb 3, including 414 deaths.
A total of 171,329 people that have had close contact with infected patients are still under medical observation, while 12,755 such people were released from observation on Feb 3.
The number of confirmed infections in the China's Hong Kong (15) and Macao (8) special administrative regions and Taiwan province (10) had risen to 33 in total, according to the commission. Link
- 2019-nCoV Mortality under 2.1%: Far Below Ebola, H1N1 and MERS
The death rate of the cases in the Chinese mainland is about 2.1 percent, far lower than that of the H1N1 flu that broke out in the United States in 2009, MERS and Ebola. Link
As a result of China's relentless efforts, the death rate of pneumonia caused by the novel coronavirus in China is under 2.1 percent, much lower than other epidemics including the 17.4 percent-death rate of the H1N1 outbreak in the United States in 2009. Link
- Video: How a 1000-Bed Hospital was Built in 10 Days and Inside of it
How it is built: Link (03:17) Inside of the hospital: Link (02:27)
- Foreign Ministry of China Emphasizes Rationality in Calls to World Diplomats
Chinese FM Wang Yi reiterated that China is capable of putting down the novel coronavirus outbreak as he talked to his counterparts in Iran, Saudi Arabia and Sudan over the phone on Monday. Link
- China would Like Early Arrival of the "Tremendous Help" as Trump Vowed
The US should react in an objective, fair, calm and evidence-based manner, rather than excessively. The US President said that the US-China relationship is very good and his administration was offering the Chinese tremendous help. China would like to see early arrival of such help. Link
- China: Number of Patients in Daily Fever Clinic Continues to Decline
As of Monday, fever outpatient clinics across the country had accepted 220,865 people, 16,710 fewer than the previous day, and 7 percent down. Link
- Foreigners in China: Confidence in Measures Taken
Expats in Shanghai, the city with the largest number of foreigners on the Chinese mainland, said they feel "pretty safe" despite the novel coronavirus outbreak. Link

4th February 2020